Mom, I've got to use the computer tonight. No, I'm not playing computer games. This is for homework. Really! Mr. Stephens says we've got to research the lifestyles of the South American Doodle Fly and I don't have any books on Doodle Flies. I gotta use the computer!

Well, tell you the truth Mom, if Dad would just pay for another phone line I wouldn't have the phone tied up all night.

(yells to Dad) Yeh, Dad! I can hear you!

See Mom! I gotta use the computer. Really! Yeh, I'll be quick. I promise.

(as she logs in on her keyboard ... then) Cool! E-mail!

What Mom? I said, "Cool! The FE-male Doodle Fly lays over six thousand eggs at once."

(yells) No, Dad, it doesn't say anything about bacon. Yeh, I'll hurry.

(reading) Dear (your name), this is Kasey. Here's a real cool Forward that I got from my cousin in Florida. "Dear Friend. There is a small boy in Nebraska who got kicked in his head by a horse. If we can all pitch in and send a million emails to him by tomorrow then a really big frozen foods company will pay for his operation to have his head attached again. Please email him NOW! His head depends on you!"

Wow! I gotta forward this to all my friends!

What Mom? Yeh, I'm findin' a whole bunch of stuff. It says the Doodle Fly attaches to the head ... of horses. Isn't that cool! Yeh, Mom, I'm hurrying.

Another email! Great! (reading) "Dear (your name), I'm only sending this to you and four hundred of my very closest friends. I got it from church camp. "Dear recipient. If we all just love each other, and show our greatest love, then blessings will then come to us as if from heaven above. So reach out to each other, just extend a hand, and learn to love each other. That is the world's best plan." P.S. If you receive this email then you must immediately send it to everyone you
